WELCOME

to the Curro Podium Grand Finale

I grew up in Pretoria and attended many athletics events at Pilditch during my high school years. I fondly recall the excitement of exceptional athletic performances and the 'gees' amongst enthusiastic spectators in the stands.

It is therefore a particular privilege to be back here and to share that Curro is honoured and thrilled to host 44 top schools at one of South Africa's biggest and most prestigious school events!

We believe that every athlete and every spectator here have a dream. But it is not the act of dreaming nor their raw talent that sets the athletes gathered here today apart.

'Hope is not a strategy. We must plan and take action to turn our hopes and dreams into reality.' – Roy T Bennett (author)

You've exerted yourself in countless hours of training to reduce your times by fractions of a second or to add crucial millimetres to pursue your goals. It is this discipline and dedication to your goals and dreams that inspire us all, not just whether you win a race or set a record.

Congratulations to the athletes participating today on developing not only your athletic prowess but the life skills that will stand each of you in good stead, whatever you pursue in the future.

Thank you especially to all the coaches, parents and guardians who supported the development of our young heroes.

Podium awards

We will watch schools compete in events such as middle-distance heats, sprints, hurdles, discus throws, and high jumps. The competition will be fierce as these talented athletes go all out to claim team trophies for the best boys' and best girls' athletics team, as well as the best combined athletics team. The most outstanding male and female track athletes, as well as the best field athletes, will be honoured with individual trophies (junior and senior awards).

Classic shoot-out

Today we will not only applaud the future of athletics in southern Africa, but also its present. Keep your eyes peeled for the classic shoot-out events during the day where some of the most phenomenal athletes in the region will be taking the field to showcase their remarkable abilities.

These 'stars of the present' include South African Olympians Akani Simbine, Zakhiti Nene, Thapelo Phora, and Lene Koster, Gena Lofstrand, World Junior 400-m champion Lythe Pillay, World Junior 100-m champion Letsile Tebogo, and African 400-m champion Miranda Coetzee.

And let's not forget about the international talent, including Norwegian Olympian Line Kloster, Dutch Olympian Femke Bol, Italian Olympian Fausto Desali, and Polish Olympian Anna Kielbasinska!

Curro

Curro is the leading independent school network in southern Africa with more than 73 000 learners. In Latin, Curro means 'I run' and so we have a particular affection for athletics.

We are deeply committed to extending educational opportunities for young South Africans in all spheres of life. In this instance, we plan to support and nurture the future of South Africa's athletics in events such as this one where we can celebrate excellence and inspire camaraderie across many communities.

We trust you will enjoy this with us!
