DRAMATIC ARTS

Available to:

IEB: Grades 10 to 12 (2025) | NSC: Grades 10 and 11 (2025)

AN OVERVIEW

Dramatic Arts is a subject that teaches you how to communicate optimally to a live audience. The subject has both a practical and a theoretical component. In the theoretical part of the course, you will learn about the history of theatre and later, the development of film. You will also develop an understanding of how a performance is put together – and how theatre can be a voice of the people. During the practical component of the course, you will learn how to use your own voice and body to the best of your ability, enabling you to communicate optimally and efficiently to an audience. In addition, you will explore different styles of performance and performance techniques.

CAREER PATHS

Dramatic Arts will enhance your performance in any career that involves dealing with people. Drama is not just for the actors, directors and writers of theatre and film. Studying this field will enable you to deliver a memorable marketing or business presentation or give you the upper hand when providing evidence in a courtroom or other formal setting. Some career paths directly related to Dramatic Arts include actor, director, writer, cinematographer, marketer, artistic director, therapist, activist, influencer, theatre manager, broadcaster, theatre lighting designer, sound designer, lighting technician and sound technician.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT FROM THIS PROGRAMME

Dramatic Arts teaches you to be confident and creative and empowers you to adapt quickly to your audience. While Dramatic Arts is a demanding course, it is also a highly rewarding one. You can expect personal and emotional growth enabled by an exploration of the exciting world of the performing arts.
