CURRO Select School

Here's an introduction to us!

Thank you for your interest in our school! We go to great lengths to create a welcoming environment where children enjoy coming to school and develop a life-long love of learning.

Curro Select Schools accommodate learners from Grade R to Grade 12 with several having a preschool that cares for babies from 3 months to children up to 5 years, depending on the school. We offer everything you would expect to find at a tailored independent school.

Here is a brief overview of what we offer our learners

Small class sizes with no more than 25 learners

We believe that learners can excel when they receive personal attention. This is why we limit our class sizes to no more than 20 to 25, depending on the particular school. Our preschool classes are also divided by age and number of children per class. Preschool teachers also have assistants to ensure that each child is cared for and fully engaged in our early childhood development programme.

IEB examinations at the end of Grade 12

The Independent Examinations Board (IEB) sets accredited examinations that learners at Curro Select Schools write at the end of Grade 12. These examination papers result in a qualification accepted at major universities around the world. The unique questioning method in these examinations requires learners to deeply understand and apply their knowledge to scenarios and questions, rather than merely memorise the material.

Cambridge curriculum at selected schools

A select few schools offer the Cambridge curriculum, which sets a global standard for education and is recognised by universities and employers worldwide. The grades, subjects and progression structures are different from the South African system, with the final examinations varying between A Level and AS Level (depending on the particular school).

Strong ethics and morals

The values we uphold are built on four pillars, namely child-friendliness, creative thinking, positive discipline and Christian values (ethics and morals). Our name means 'I run', which we interpret as 'I learn at my own pace and according to my own aptitude, attitude and talents.' These pillars form the guidelines for our teaching methodology and the behaviour modelled by our staff, and are deeply rooted in the belief that each learner deserves the best possible education we can offer.
